THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; EXTRAORDINARY. JOURNAL,

SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1771.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, April 18, 1771.

ORDERED,

THAT the PRESENTMENTS of the GRAND JURY, at this preſent Seſſions, be forthwith publiſhed in the ſeveral Gazettes of this Province.

By the Court,
JAMES JOHNSTON, C. C. & P.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The PRESENTMENTS of the GRAND JURORS for the Body of this Province, at a Court of General Seſſions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Aſſize and General Goal Delivery, begun and holden at Charles-Town, on Monday the 15*th Day of April,* 1771.

I. WE preſent, as a Grievance, the preſent ruinous State of the Fortifications in general, and of Johnſon's Fort in particular.

II. We preſent, as a Grievance, the general Neglect of the Officers of the Militia throughout the Province, for not muſtering and training the different Companies, as often as the Laws require; and the Neglect of the Patrol Duty.

III. We preſent, as a great Grievance, the too great Number of Licences granted by the Charles-Town Magiſtrates, particularly to Perſons who are otherwiſe well able to get their Living by a more commendable Occupation; and we recommend, that the Number of the Licences for Charles-Town may be greatly reduced.

IV. We preſent, as a Matter worthy the Notice of the Legiſlature, that the ſtaple Commodities of the Province, are often brought to Market in a very careleſs Condition, particularly Rice, which is often ſent very foul, and with much Chaff, which ought to be winnowed out; the doing of which can be of no Diſadvantage to the Makers, but a Credit to the Article, and an Advantage in the Sale.

V. We preſent, as a Grievance, the Want of a Number of Sitting Juſtices of the Peace, to meet by Rotation Weekly (in Charles-Town particularly) for the hearing and determining all ſuch Grievances as may properly come before them.

VI. We preſent, as a Grievance, that a limited Time is not fixed to record Mortgages, Marriage-Settlements, and Bills of Sale; for many Perſons have been defrauded of large Sums of Money, by ſeveral Deeds of that Nature being put upon Record ſix or ſeven Years after the Date thereof; ſo that unjuſt Preference has been given, and the Matter concealed for many Years, to the great Injury of Numbers, who were almoſt ruined by ſuch Proceedings. We deſire it may be recommended to the Legiſlature, that a Law be made, that if ſuch Deeds are not entered upon Record, in three Months after the Date, they ſhould be deemed inſufficient.

VII. We preſent, upon the Information of Thomas Ferguſon, Eſq; John Mitchell, of Charles-Town, for unlawfully ſtopping the natural Courſe of the Waters leading into Penny's Creek, by a Bank or Dam; and thereby overflowing, hurting, ſpoiling, and making dangerous, and at ſome Times almoſt impaſſable, the public High Road leading from Will-Town to Beach-Hill, and the public Landing Road leading to the ſaid Creek, to the great Damage and common Nuiſance of the Perſons making Uſe of the ſaid Roads.

VIII. We preſent, as a Grievance, the Narrowneſs of many Parts of the High Roads, throughout the Province in general, which renders it inconvenient to loaded Carriages; and particularly that Part of the Road leading to Aſhley-Ferry from the Quarter-Houſe, where it is impoſſible for two Carriages to paſs at the ſame Time.

IX. We preſent, as a Grievance, the Want of a Law, obliging all Perſons keeping public Ferries, to take out Licences, for Houſes of Entertainment for all Travellers.

X. We preſent, as a Grievance, the Commiſſioners of the High Roads for St. Thomas and St. Dennis's Pariſh, for not keeping in Repair, that Part which leads from Guerin's Bridge to the High Road, near Major Stephen Miller's Plantation.

XI. We preſent Francis Smith, Edmund Bellinger, jun. and Samuel Waddingham, Commiſſioners of Combahee Cauſey, for Neglect of Duty, in not keeping the ſaid Cauſey in proper Repair, the ſame having been for a conſiderable Time paſt, and being now, in ſuch bad Condition, as to be inconvenient and dangerous to Travellers.

XII. We preſent, as a Grievance, the bad Condition in which Chullifinny, Aſhepoo, Pocotaligo (near the Plantation of Doctor Skirving) Wallace's, and Rantowle's Cauſeys are, and for ſome Time paſt have been; and not knowing the Commiſſioners for theſe Cauſeys, recommend, that the Attorney-General be directed, to make proper Inquiry for the Names of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and that they be proſecuted for Neglect of Duty: By Information of Michael Muckinfuſs.

XIII. We preſent, as a very great Grievance, the general Neglect of the Commiſſioners of the High Roads, in not obliging many Perſons, (though duly ſummoned) to work thereon, or pay Penalties for omitting to do ſo; hoping that the Law, if defective on this Head, will be amended and made effectual by the Legiſlature.

XIV. We preſent John Shagnuſſey as guilty of a Nuiſance, in performing, by himſelf and his Aſſociates, Legerdemain Tricks, thereby collecting a Number of idle, looſe, and diſorderly Perſons, to the Diſturbance of the Peace.

XV. We preſent the Conſtables of Charles-Town, for making Proclamation by Beat of Drum, with regard to Run-away Negroes, and other Matters of private Concern, to the Diſturbance of the Inhabitants, and the Danger of Perſons paſſing through the Streets on Horſeback or in Carriages.

XVI. We preſent, as a Grievance, that Negro Wenches, and other Slaves, are allowed to huckſter and ſell all Sorts of Dry Goods, Fruit and Victuals, about the Markets and Streets, which is often an Inducement to Theft, it being well known that they are ready to buy and receive ſuch as are ſtolen.

XVII. We preſent, as a Grievance, the Non-Attendance of Witneſſes at the Courts of Seſſions; by Means of which, Priſoners are confined much longer than otherwiſe they would be, by which they ſuffer. We therefore, to prevent the Evil as much as poſſible, would recommend, that an Allowance be provided and made, to thoſe Witneſſes who cannot afford to pay their Expences in coming to Town, from the diſtant Parts of the Country.

Laſtly. We recommend that theſe our PRESENTMENTS be publiſhed in the ſeveral Gazettes of this Province.

LONDON, FEBRUARY 14.

Upper-Houſe, Tueſday, February 14, 1771.

THE order of the day being read for taking into conſideration the papers relating to the diſpute about Falkland's-iſland; and for the Lords to be ſummoned.

It was moved by the Duke of Newcaſtle, That an humble addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty to return his Majeſty our thanks for his gracious communication to this Houſe of the Declaration, ſigned by the Ambaſſador of his Catholic Majeſty, which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to accept.

"To offer to his Majeſty our moſt ſincere acknowledgments for having ſupported the honour of the crown of Great-Britain, by a firm and unvaried adherence to his juſt demand of ſatisfaction for the injury received by the violent enterprize againſt Falkland's-iſland, by which ſteady and uniform conduct his Majeſty has obtained from the King of Spain an explicit diſavowal of that expedition, together with an engagement to reſtore things to the preciſe ſituation in which they were before the late unjuſtifiable attempt.

"To expreſs our ſatisfaction on the proſpect of the bleſſing of peace being ſecured to us, as we have no reaſon to doubt the good faith of his Catholic Majeſty, in the performance of his engagements; and to declare our grateful ſenſe of his Majeſty's paternal care of his people, in not too haſtily engaging them in the hazards and burthens of war.

"To aſſure his Majeſty of our zeal and readineſs, on all occaſions, to exert our utmoſt efforts to enable his Majeſty to carry into execution ſuch meaſures as ſhall be neceſſary for the ſupport of the honour and dignity of his crown."

Then the Duke of Manchaſter propoſed an amendment to be made to the ſaid motion, by leaving out the words from the end of the firſt paragraph thereof, to the end of the motion.

Which being objected to. After long debate, the queſtion was put thereupon. It was reſolved in the negative. Contents 38. Not Contents 107.

Then ſaid addreſs was agreed to as at firſt propoſed, and ordered to be ſent to his Majeſty by the Lords, with white ſtaves. Upon which the Lords in the minority entered a Proteſt.

Wedneſday the Spaniſh papers, relating to the Convention, came under conſideration of the Lower Aſſembly. Lord B---p moved, in ſubſtance,----That an humble addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, returning him thanks for having agreed to the Convention, and for his compliance with the requeſt of that Aſſembly, in laying the Spaniſh papers before them. Mr. D-------ll moved, that all thoſe words contained in the addreſs, which conveyed the thanks of the Club for having ſigned the Convention, be left out, and then the propoſed addreſs would only thank his Majeſty for having laid the papers before them. Which being objected to, the debate began.----Col. B---e made a moſt ſpirited ſpeech on the occaſion, highly condemning the ſteps taken by the Miniſtry in the affair of Falkland's-iſland.

The debate laſted till half an hour paſt three yeſterday morning, when the houſe divided; 275 were for the addreſs, and 157 againſt it.

Mr. D-------ll made a moſt excellent ſpeech, which held upwards of two hours, before he moved for the amendment.

The addreſs, we hear, was read ſo long ago as Sunday night laſt by the Premier to a few of his ſelect friends.

FEBRUARY 15. Notwithſtanding the late Convention, it is the general opinion that the year 1771 will not be a year of peace.

A Bill for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion in the American Colonies has paſſed a great Aſſembly.

A letter from Jaſſy, dated Dec. 24, confirms the account of the Ruſſians having taken the city of Brahilow and Boukareſt, in the former of which they found 74 pieces of cannon, and were in expectation of ſoon extirpating the Turks from that ſide of the Danube.

FEBRUARY 16. The Hon. the Houſe of Commons did not preſent their addreſs to his Majeſty yeſterday, relative to the late Convention with Spain concerning Falkland's-iſland, as was inſerted, but will preſent the ſame next Monday at the levee at St. James's.

Thurſday the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham was at the Houſe of Peers, but about nine o'clock was carried in a chair to his houſe in Pall-Mall, being ſo much afflicted with the gout that he was obliged to be carried up ſtairs to his bed chamber.

People who would cavil, and are clamorous about that part of the Spaniſh declaration, where the King of Spain makes a reſervation of a prior claim of right to Falkland's-iſland, would do well to conſider, that ſuch reſervation is only mere matter of form, and is never likely to produce the ſmalleſt miſunderſtanding between the two crowns, eſpecially when they recollect, or may inform themſelves, that Spain never, to this hour, has renounced her formal claim of right, either to Minorca or Gibraltar, in the treaties ſubſequent to our poſſeſſion of thoſe places.

The bets at the weſt end of the town are ten guineas to one that the Parliament will not break up till the middle of May.

It is ſaid our warlike preparations will be continued as they are, as the King of Spain may not ratify the Convention. Our Miniſtry are right, for as his Catholic Majeſty has thought proper to diſavow the attack upon Falkland's-iſland, which was made by order of his Miniſter, he may, with as good reaſon, diſavow the preſent Convention, which has been ſigned here by his Ambaſſador.
